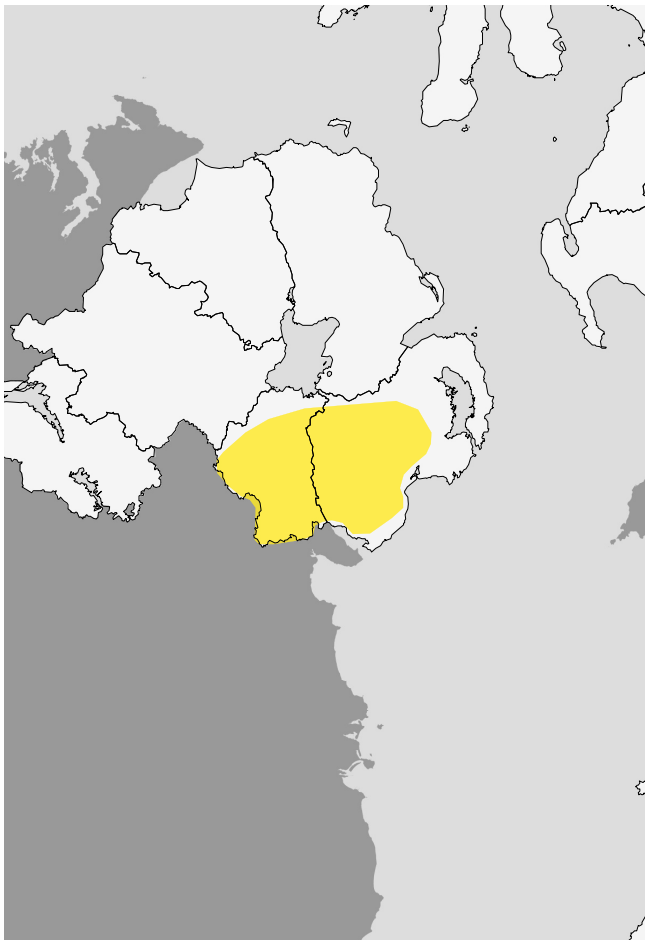
Yellow warning
Ice

Between
05:00 Mon 8 Jan 2024 and
10:00 Mon 8 Jan 2024



Ice may lead to some difficult travelling conditions at first this morning.

What to expect

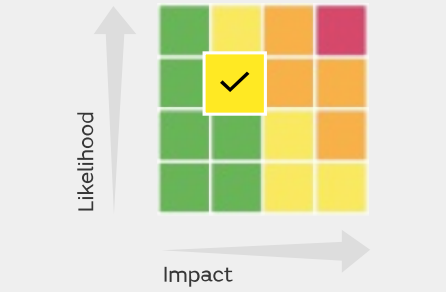
- Probably some icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths
- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces

Further details

Showers moving inland across south-eastern parts of Northern Ireland will lead to rain falling onto sub-zero surfaces and development of ice on some untreated surfaces.

What should I do?

Keep yourself and your family safe when it is icy. Plan to leave the house at least five minutes earlier than normal. Not needing to rush, reduces your risk of accidents, slips, and falls.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts

If you need to make a journey on foot or by bike, try to use pavements along main roads which are likely to be less slippery.

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.
